Tukwila is for Meetings and Conventions

TUKWILA, Wash. (January 8, 2008) - Shopping, bird watching, dining, kayaking, bowling and walking are just a few of the items to take advantage of in Tukwila. Whether traveling by air (just a few minutes away at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport), driving or taking the train, Tukwila has an amazing amount of activities for convention-goers. The Westfield Southcenter Shopping Center is undergoing major renovation and will be the largest mall in Washington State in 2008. There are also nearly 20 hotels within a five mile radius, making a great shopping getaway – complete with free shuttle!

- First rate value accommodations typically priced 20 to 30 percent less than downtown Seattle.
- 20 hotels that range from family friendly to meeting and convention ready.
- Free parking through the Park & Fly.
- Over 75 restaurants, from intimate cafes to family restaurants.
- 5 million square feet of shopping.
- Sights by plane, train, automobile, bicycle, rental cars, taxis, airport shuttle services and public and private bus transportation.
- An easy 5-minute drive to SeaTac International Airport with plenty of off-airport parking to choose from including park and fly hotel specials.
- Hotels that offer free shuttle service to and from the airport, as well as to many local sites of interest.
- Washington State Ferry service available to and from West Seattle and Downtown Seattle, making access to the Olympic Peninsula and San Juan Islands a snap.
